

Just You
words and music
Vin Distefano

I learned today, you'll be visiting soon

To see some of our friends and spend a week or two.

- Chorus

And when we see each other...do we dare or even bother

To ask how we feel inside?

There's nothing I wouldn't do if I could just hold, if I could just love,

Just You.

Are you happy with our situation? Seeing you still warms me deep inside, yea.

Should I pursue this frustration, hoping inside of you, you still burn the way I do?

Should I try?

(break)

(Chorus)
