

These Tears

words and music
Vin Distefano

Didn't we say we'd always be together as one?

I don't see the fire in your eyes anymore. How come? Instead I see

Chorus

These Tears as they begin to fall. Am I losing you after all?

Just remember I'll always love you, when you're gone.

And I'll miss telling you I love you and oh, how much I've cared.

I'll miss the love that once was mine and all the love that we shared. But I can't stop

(Chorus)

You said you feel, that babe, "We're drifting far apart".

Did I do something, girl, to take me from your heart?

Can I convince you that I'll love you till I die?

Oh, all this pain that I feel inside. End this game that from you I hide.

(break)

(Chorus)

You said you feel, that babe, you drifting far away.

Can I do something, girl, to make you want to stay?

Can I convince you that I'll love you till I die?

Oh, all this pain that I feel inside. End this game that from you I hide.

Our last kiss meant more to me than you'll ever know.

I can't let you see this hurt inside, I can't let it show.

(Chorus)
