

Oh Jeannie!

words and music
Vin Distefano

My baby and I, I mean my baby and me, were strolling down the beach when I happened to see.

This glow from the water where the sea meets the shore. I dug out this bottle,

You won't believe what I saw.

When I popped off the top, the bottle smoked in my hand and this beautiful lady called me "Master",

Oh...I had these plans with my babe, a nite of dancing and fun

So I took my bottle and I made sure nothing went wrong.

Chorus

Oh Jeannie, won't you blink your eyes and make my wish come true tonite?

Oh Jeannie. I wish I may, I wish you might.

Won't you grant me this wish? We'll be so happy, you'll see.

I'll try not to beg, but now I'm on my knee. Oh Jeannie, we'll be so happy for the rest of our lives.

Well as time went by, she'd wish for all that she could

And my Jeannie said, though every time, she understood,

You see my baby she used me. I was easy, you see.

But my Jeannie kept an eye out and would rescue me.

"Say Jeannie, she's not the girl that I knew, she was warm and caring, she was someone like you".

When I looked at my Jeannie, like I'd never done before. She's standing right her,

The one I've been searching for.

Chorus

I finally opened my eyes. Why'd it take so long to see?

Won't you take us away, someplace, where there's just you and me...(Chorus)
