

Midnite Lover

words and music
Vin Distefano

I can't wait for the dark to come over. I don't see that you're not really there.

I talk to my invisible lover. I have to wait until there's nobody near.

I have told her how she means all the world to me and if I lost her how I know I would die.

She's the only one who's seen all there is to me. She's the only one who's seen me cry.

Chorus

Oh, Midnite Lover. Oh, in the dark of the nite

Oh, Midnite Lover. Where do you go when I turn on the lite?

I wish we could have found a solution, to communicate the feelings we feared.

If I could now I wouldn't hide my emotions, I never got over you not being here.

You are the only one who I would talk freely, You are the only one who knew what I mean.

Now I see your image there in the shadows. You're still as close to me as you've ever been.
